Empathy Map Canvas:

What does he THINK AND FEEL?

- What really counts: Saving time and getting a quick, trouble-free purchase.
- Major preoccupations: Keeping personal data and card information perfectly safe during checkout.
- Worries & aspirations: He worries his package will get lost in transit, but wants a premium shopping app that feels seamless on his phone.

External Influences & Environment

What does he HEAR?

- What friends say: "Don't buy from slow sites, it's not worth the headache."
- What boss/peers say: "I only buy from stores that let me track my package status instantly."
- What influencers say: "Modern apps use fast, secure technologies to protect your accounts."

What does he SEE?

- Environment: A busy lifestyle where people shop quickly on their mobile phones during breaks.
- Friends: Everyone around him using high-speed, interactive, and beautifully designed apps.
- What the market offers: Competitors with laggy product pages, broken search bars, and clunky checkouts.

Public Behaviours

What does he SAY AND DO?

- Attitude in public: He vocalizes his annoyance with outdated, slow online stores.
- Appearance: Actively looks for and prefers shopping on clean, modern, and trustworthy platforms.
- Behaviour towards others: Happily shares links to good apps, but closes and deletes a website immediately if it lags.

Frustrations & Desired Outcomes

Pain

- Fears: Credit card fraud or losing access to his account due to weak site security.
- Frustrations: Dealing with unhelpful product filters, slow cart updates, and pages that crash.
- Obstacles: Online shops that do not give real tracking updates after a purchase is made.

Gain

- "Wants" / Needs: An instant product search bar, a smooth cart checkout, and an easy order tracker.
- Measures of success: Finding an item and completing a safe purchase in under two minutes.
- Results: Feeling relaxed, satisfied, and happy with a fast, modern digital shopping experience.
